6/6/2017	Call to EO Office	[REDACTED] called the EO Office and left a message for a return call.
6/6/2017	Discussion at Network	OSL informed EO that [REDACTED] had contacted their office with concern regarding a student [REDACTED] but they were unable to identify a student named [REDACTED]
6/6/2017	Mallory call to [REDACTED]	[REDACTED] can come in this afternoon.
6/6/2017	Mallory meet with [REDACTED] (and Michelle from CASAS)	Mallory met with [REDACTED] at the EO office. Mallory offered is [REDACTED] would like Michelle from CASAS to join, [REDACTED] stated that she would and Mallory called Michelle who was available to join. Mallory informed [REDACTED] about the EO office, the role of the EO office in investigations, confidentiality, retaliation protections, and allowed [REDACTED] to ask questions before sharing any information. Full notes of interview are in the file. [REDACTED] believes [REDACTED] is a Western student, because he told her he was and described classes he was taking. At the time of the interview Mallory was unable to determine if [REDACTED] was a student and proceeded with interview to gather more information about his identity. Mallory informed [REDACTED] that support services resources were available to her whether or not [REDACTED] was a student, but that his status as a student would impact the University's ability to respond. Mallory informed [REDACTED] about reporting options

		with Bellingham Police. During the interview [REDACTED] shared that she started met a male that called himself "[REDACTED]" on the dating App Tinder and went on several dates with him throughout April, May, and June. These meetings involved consensual sexual contact, including sexual intercourse. However, [REDACTED] began to stop using a condom – which [REDACTED] did not consent to. He also began to request money from her, which resulted to about $500 in total. On June 2 [REDACTED] picked her up from Nash around 2-3:00 AM. They stopped at Lake Padden smoked marijuana, and then [REDACTED] suggested they get a hotel. He took money out of an ATM with her card for the hotel and they went to Motel 6. While at the room [REDACTED] said she consented to vaginal and oral sex with [REDACTED]. However, [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] forced her to "deep throat" to the extent that she vomited. During what was initially consensual vaginal intercourse, [REDACTED] then forced his penis into her anus, which she did not consent to. She repeatedly told him to stop and he continued anyway. [REDACTED] explained that [REDACTED] then "switched back" to vaginal penetration, which she specifically told him not to because she was worried about the health risks. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] then switch back to anal penetration. [REDACTED] then told [REDACTED] to put her mouth on his anus, which she refused to do and [REDACTED] then said it was time to leave. They left the hotel and the hotel staff expressed concern about [REDACTED] being underage, including that they were considering calling the police. [REDACTED] drove [REDACTED] back to her dorm and she told him, "I told you to stop and that it hurt and you didn't." That evening (6/2) [REDACTED] contacted campus police who drove her to St. Joseph's. While at St. Joseph's she talked with someone from DVSAS. The nurse told her she saw a tooth mark on [REDACTED] breast and tears to her anus consistent with forceful entry. [REDACTED] also met with the Western Counseling Center and CASAS. CASAS assisted with academic adjustments and to working with professors.
6/7/2017	[REDACTED] report to BPD	[REDACTED] reported to Bellingham Police at CASAS office.
6/21/2017	[REDACTED] email to Mallory and Michelle	Seeking information for protection order. Michelle responded with information as requested (Mallory was away from the office, with an autoreply indicating as such). The information provided in this email included the identify of [REDACTED]. Mallory searched using this name and confirmed that [REDACTED] is not a Western student.
6/29/2017	Mallory email to [REDACTED]	Response to 6/21 request.
6/30/2017	[REDACTED] email to Mallory	Requesting copy of records provided during interview, "the account and the timeline I wrote out specifically"
7/6/2017	Mallory call to [REDACTED]	Left message requesting return call.
7/6/2017	[REDACTED] call to Mallory	Mallory confirmed with [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] is not a student at Western. [REDACTED] knew this and said that he is a student at Whatcom. She recently received a voicemail from the investigator with BPD who said that there was not enough evidence to prosecute the issue but she has not called the investigator back yet. She was able to get a no contact order in place. [REDACTED] asked if a copy of the statement that was prepared with our office could be emailed to her. Mallory shared that while we have provided students with hard copies to facilitate a police report, it is not typically our practice to email student's statement's given the sensitive information. [REDACTED] said that she understood this. One of the things she was looking for is in Seattle and so she thinks she has another way to get it she just thought getting the copy emailed from us might work too. Mallory clarified with [REDACTED] that because [REDACTED] is not a student we could not take any action that would result in a university sanction, but that she can still talk with Michelle (or I) if she wants more information about resources and support services. She is welcome to call this summer or stop by when she returns to Bellingham.
